Library Card Policy

It is the policy of the Collegedale Public Library to register borrowers of library materials and users of public access computers connected to the Internet. The purpose of registration is to adequately protect and control Library collections and equipment, which are assets of the City.

Regulations

Section 1. General Collegedale Library Card Policies

- A. The City of Collegedale provides a library card at no charge to Collegedale residents (and certain types of non-residents defined in Section 2 below).
- B. The City of Collegedale offers to non-residents the opportunity to purchase a library card for the below fees.

Individual	$60
Family	$85 (can check out double the number of material)
Senior Individual	$50
Senior Family	$65 (can check out double the number of material)
Temporary	$30
Online	$30

This card is subject to the same privileges and restrictions as the card provided to Collegedale residents. Non-resident cards may be renewed each year, provided that the borrower is in good standing.

- C. The City of Collegedale also offers to non-residents a Temporary Library Card for Computer Use for a charge of $1.00 per hour. . This card may be used to access Library computers and databases, but may not be used to borrow library materials.
- D. The City of Collegedale will assess a replacement charge of $2.00 for a lost library card.
- E. All persons who wish to obtain a Collegedale Library Card shall present current government-issued picture Identification and proof of address by providing one of the address verification documents detailed in Section 3, below.
- F. The borrower remains fully responsible for all items borrowed on the card.
- G. Lost cards should be reported immediately. Library users are responsible for all materials checked out on their card up to the time that they notify the Library that the card is lost and the Library has had an opportunity to update its records.
- H. There is no minimum age to apply for a library card as long as the applicant's parent/guardian signs the application if the applicant is under 18 years of age.
- I. A valid Collegedale Library Card or suitable form of photo ID (see Section 3) must be presented each time a person wishes to borrow library materials or access the library computers or databases.

- J. All persons -- both Collegedale residents and non-residents -- are welcome to use library materials in the library and attend free library-sponsored programs without charge, and without presenting a Collegedale Library Card.
- K. In order for a SAU student to obtain a library card, they will need to have a letter signed by the Resident Hall Dean of the University to prove that they live in the dorms.

Section 2. Nonresidents Exempt from Paying Nonresident Fees for Collegedale Library Cards.

- A. Individuals in the groups listed below are exempt from the $60 annual nonresident fee. All library cards issued must be renewed one year from date of issue. They may receive a family card.
 - Collegedale Library Staff

Proof required: Picture identification shown by an adult and proof of residence
 - Collegedale City Staff

Proof required: Proof of City employment (uniform with Collegedale or call to Collegedale HR Department), picture identification, and proof of residence
 - Collegedale Business Owners

Proof required: Current year paid tax receipt for the business location or a current business license or a lease that is current, and a picture identification shown by an adult and proof of residence.

Section 3. Name and Address Verification for Collegedale Library Cards

- A. The following information must be supplied on all library card applications in order for card issuance. This information is protected under the State’s confidentiality laws and can only be obtained by non-library staff through a subpoena from a court of competent jurisdiction:
 1. Applicant name and, if under 18, Parent/Guardian’s Name
 2. Residential Street Address (PO Box can only be used as the second Address)
 3. Phone number(s) (if no phone available, number of friend or relative who can contact you)
 4. Date of Birth
- B. When applying for a library card, applicants’ residential addresses must be verified. The verified address must match the information supplied by the patron on the application form.
 - Collegedale residents must present government-issued photo identification. If under the age of 18, a parent/legal guardian must present their government-issued photo ID. The address will be verified against a database of Collegedale residents provided by the City of Collegedale. Accepted forms of identification are a government-issued identification document with a picture of the applicant or applicant's parent or legal guardian, such as a driver’s license, or military identification.
 - Nonresident applicants must provide the same information required of Collegedale residents as detailed above plus proof of address. Proof of address maybe any one of the following: a mortgage statement, or a rent invoice or utility bill (or other suitable correspondence) not more than 60 days old with a name and address matching that on the application.

ISSUING LIBRARY CARDS

I. POLICY

To check out library materials a person must have a valid library card.

II. REGULATIONS

A. Residency

1. Persons wishing to obtain a library card will be expected to verify identification and proof of a local permanent address. . The proof of address is particularly important so the library can obtain the return of borrowed material.
2. Residents with a post office box as their mailing address must also verify their residence address.

B. Identification

1. Identity and Address Verification for Adults 18 and Over

- a. Acceptable verification of both identity and residential address includes one of the following:

1. Valid driver's license or state-issued identification card with current local address (preferred verification source, and photo not required)
2. Valid driver's license or state-issued identification car (photo not required) with previous address and one of the following with current local address:

Printed check
Utility bill or receipt
Rent receipt
Voter registration card
Piece of cancelled mail

2. Identification and Address Verification for Children Through Age Seventeen.

- a. A child accompanied by a parent or legal guardian:
 1. The parent or legal guardian must show verification of identity and address as detailed in B.1.
 2. The parent or legal guardian will sign the application form and be legally responsible for returning library materials checked out on the child's card.
- b. If a child is unaccompanied by a parent or legal guardian, a library card application may be sent home with the child. The signed and completed application form must be brought back with the valid identification and address verification of the parent or legal guardian (See B.1. above) before the library card can be issued.

- c. Residential students who attend school in the local area but who have permanent residence outside the local area must provide verification of both the local address and their permanent residence address.

C. Staff may refuse to issue or renew a library card if:

1. Fines in excess of $5.00 have been incurred.
2. Delinquent materials have not been returned.
3. Adequate identification and proof of address cannot be supplied.
4. False information is given.
5. No permanent address can be provided.

D. A patron may not have more than one valid card.

E. The patron is responsible for all materials checked out on his library card. A patron reporting his card stolen is responsible for materials checked out on the card prior to his reporting it stolen.

F. A patron may not check out materials on an expired library card. Cards will be renewed every three years, except for temporary cards, which are issued for only three months.

G. A patron may obtain a replacement card if he loses his card or it is stolen. (See Replacement Library Cards.)

III. PROCEDURES

- a. Permanent and temporary library cards — only 10 items at a time in the following categories but up to 30 items in all:
- b. Restricted library card — only one item at a time.

C. Exceptions to the above loan periods and limits on materials may be made at the discretion of Library Director.

MEETING ROOM POLICY

I. POLICY

The meeting room of the Library is intended primarily for programs sponsored by the Library or Friends of the Library. Other non-profit organizations may use the meeting rooms subject to the regulations of this policy.

II. REGULATIONS

A. Programs or activities sponsored by the Library or the Friends of the Library have priority over other meetings. Certain time periods may be reserved on a regular basis for library uses and programs.

B. The availability of the meeting rooms for non-library groups is as follows:

1. The meeting rooms shall not be available for use by for-profit groups or businesses.
 2. The meeting rooms may not be used for the following activities:
 - a. Purely social events.
 - b. Money-raising events, projects, or programs.
 - c. Events which offer items or services for sale or which include overt solicitation of clients for products or services.
 - d. Excepted from this regulation are activities sponsored by the Library or Friends of the Library for the purpose of benefiting the Library.
 3. The meeting rooms are available for local public civic, educational, and cultural non-profit groups or organizations only. Organizations that exclude the general public from membership will be denied the use of the meeting rooms.
- C. The charges for meeting room use by non-library groups and the reservation requirements are as follows:
1. The charge for use of the meeting rooms is $10.00 (minimum) per meeting for two (2) hours and $5.00 per hour or any portion of an hour beyond two (2) hours. The maximum charge is $30.00 per day.
 2. Library or Friends of the Library sponsored groups, governmental departments or agencies (Federal, State, or Local), public meetings called by governmental public officials, and non-profit groups involved in adult literacy tutoring or tax preparation help for the elderly are exempt from charges.
 3. A group may hold two (2) meetings per calendar year or one (1) series of three (3) meetings per series within a 30-day period each calendar year. Exceptions to this are educational groups engaged in adult literacy tutoring.
 4. A group wishing to use a meeting room must make a reservation in writing at least two (2) weeks in advance and not more than four (4) months in advance of the date of intended use.
 5. At the time the request for reservation is made, the group must provide a copy of its IRS 501(c)(3) tax exemption certificate. If the reservation is approved, the fee must be paid within seven (7) days of approval.
 6. If a group fails to notify the library of the cancellation of its scheduled use of a meeting room, it shall be charged the $10.00 minimum fee. Refunds will be made if a group notifies the library of cancellation 24 hours before the time of its scheduled use of the room.
- D. The following regulations apply to all non-library groups using the meeting rooms:
1. All meetings must be open to the public and the press and attendance may not be restricted in any way. Any advertisements relating to a meeting must state that it is open to the public. Exceptions to this are educational groups engaged in adult literacy tutoring.

2. No fees may be charged by any group for admission to a meeting nor may a collection be taken or donations requested. Exceptions may be made for paid registration for educational workshops, institutes, or library-sponsored programs.
3. Groups may schedule meetings only during the hours when the library is open.
4. Library building staff will arrange the meeting room in the manner requested by the group in advance only once. Building staff is not available to move or handle equipment brought in by a group.
5. A group must request in advance to use the library's projection equipment. Library staff will not run the equipment and the group must provide a qualified projectionist.
6. Groups may serve light refreshments when their plan to do so has been pre-approved by the Director. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited.
7. The Library is a Tobacco free campus.
8. The Library does not provide messenger service to anyone attending a meeting in the Library.
9. The chairman of the group or its sponsor is responsible for the orderly conduct of the meeting so that readers will not be disturbed. Quiet on entering and leaving is essential.
10. The Director and/or branch librarian is authorized to deny anyone use of the meeting rooms if he or she believe the meeting of the group might cause damage to the building or cause a disturbance. The Library reserves the right to deny use of the meeting rooms to any group that is disorderly or violates the regulations and procedures.
11. The meeting room must be left in good condition. The group may be charged for any damage done to the room or the furniture or equipment, or for any required extra cleanup.
12. The Director is granted broad discretion in interpreting the regulations on occasions when applicability of any regulation is not clear.
